

BULAWAYO MINING COMPANY
(PRIVATE) LIMITED

VACANCIES – BOILERMAKER CLASS 1 (x 2)

Applications are invited from suitably qualified and experienced persons to fill the vacant Boilermaker positions that have arisen at How Mine.

The Positions

The overall objective of the position is to provide boilermaking/fabrication and maintenance services for equipment in the underground section.

Responsibilities

- Maintenance of equipment in line with S.I. 109 of 1990 (Mining Management and Safety Regulations) and other legal requirements
- Plate welding, fabrication and boiler-making work to ensure equipment availability
- Fabrication and repair of chutes
- Projects work

Qualifications and Requirements

- Apprenticeship training
- A minimum of National Certificate in Plate Welding
- 3 years post – apprenticeship experience in mining or heavy industry
- Knowledge in welding techniques, interpersonal skills and communication
- The successful candidate should be able to demonstrate initiative and resourcefulness
- Knowledge of SHEQ management systems will be a distinct advantage

Applications with detailed CVs and certified copies of certificates to reach the undersigned by 16 February 2018.

The Human Resources Manager
(Boilermakers)
How Mine
P.O. Box 2259
Bulawayo
Email: recruitment@howbmc.co.zw

